Buna Mae Lane, Leesburg, VA 20176

Lee's Crossing is a 750-acre estate home community with beautiful views of Sugarloaf Mountain, the Catoclin Mountains, and horse trails offering access to the lush Loudoun County countryside. Offered for sale is a cleared 10 acre lot with 6 bedroom septic approval and a well that pumps 30 gallons per minute. The lot is located at the corner of Limestone School Road and Buna Mae Lane. The property is in land use under the agriculture qualifying category.

Covenants are in place to preserve property values and maintain the general integrity of the equestrian lifestyle. The covenants require that lots be developed for private residential use and agricultural purposes exclusively. New construction homes must have a minimum of 3,400 square feet and the general appearance of Williamsburg, Country, Colonial, or Farm-type architecture. Single story homes are permitted. Other restrictions may apply – please contact listing agent for additional information.
