Why 1.5% Listing Fee?

Our goal is to bring down the high cost of selling a home and pass those savings back to you. We do that by charging a listing fee of 1.5% to sell your home. This includes all the services of a typical agent, starting with an in-home consultation, professional photography, yard signs, lock boxes, scheduling showings, marketing and advertising. On top of that, your home is listed on the MLS, which pushes your home onto thousands of websites including Zillow, Trulia and Realtor.com. With over 92% of homebuyers searching for homes on the internet, online exposure is critical to attracting buyers. But our services don't stop there. We stay with you along the whole way, helping you understand inspections, contracts, negotiating offers and ensuring a smooth closing with your dedicated transaction coordinator. A traditional listing agent would typically charge you a 3% commission for all those services. On a $400,000 home sale, that adds up to $12,000! We offer the same service for only 1.5%. That's $6,000 in savings, keeping your equity where it belongs; IN YOUR POCKET! We feel good offering a service that gives value and savings to our clients. We work hard to give you more value, marketing and service than most traditional agents and at a better cost to you.

Charles Patrick was our listing agent for our Glendale home. From the moment we met him we knew we were in good hands. I don't think we could have found a more knowledgeable and professional agent than Charles. He made a stressful situation absolutely seamless. Not only did he exceed our expectations as an agent, he will be a friend of ours for years to come.

Sold a Single Family home in 2018 in Surprise, AZ.

Working with Charles and Erin to sell our home and purchase a new build was a flawless and stress free experience. Our home was listed Friday afternoon with the price being on the high end of it's range. Charles did an open house Saturday morning, and we had a full price offer.

Charles exceeds all expectations. Not only is he knowledgeable, he and his team never leave you wanting or needing for anything. He answers calls and email immediately and is lightning fast at getting you into see a home your interested in. He isn't only friendly, he takes the time to really care. He knew my daughter loved dinosaurs and rocks, he found a big round one, gave it to her and told her it was a dinosaur egg! It's still one of her favorite things! Thank you for everything!
Don't want to forget about the team! Erin is tenacious and gets the job done! When I had a question on my loan estimate (and I couldn't get a hold of the loan officer) She called that loan officer on my behalf, until the loan officer called me back! She's professional and hard working!

Over the past 3 1/2 years we have been on the buyers end, sellers end and property managers of our AZ home, all with Charles by our side. Let me just say I have NEVER in my life seen a realtor go above and beyond like Charles has! He is impeccable! His team is spot on and always one step ahead of you and your questions! I highly recommend him and his team for your future needs whatever they may be because without a doubt he is the ONE that can get the job done and right!

Thank you, Charles! Less ^
