

Moving Forward Plan

A short planning sheet for the human side of the foreclosure timeline: next housing, privacy, equity goals, and decision deadlines.

Start with the outcome

The right plan should name what you want next: keeping the home, selling with enough time to move, protecting equity, avoiding public exposure, or reducing stress.

Plan around real life

Relocation, family, tenants, school schedules, work, pets, and storage can all affect what timing is actually workable.

Make the next step specific

A good next step has a person, a date, and a document or action attached to it.

Quick checklist

Preferred outcome: _____

Backup outcome: _____

Move or transition date needed: _____

Minimum net proceeds needed: _____
